REVIEW OF WASHINGTON SPORT HISTORY FOR 1906

ATHLETICS SHOW GREAT INCREASE IN ATTENDANCE

Every Form of Competition, Amateur and Professional, Warmly Supported and Has Bright Outlook for Coming Year.

Every branch of sport showed a healthy growth in Washington in the past year, and the outlook for 1907 is even brighter.

Attendance is the best indication of the interest in amusement enterprises and the attendance at sporting events in the District of Columbia in the past year, with few exceptions, was all that could be desired. Although the Washington American League team was in miserable shape, and at times furnished an article of ball little short of ludicrous, the fans never wavered in their The same record made in cities three times the size of Washington would have reduced the rooters to a corporal's guard, but here they turned out every day in numbers sufficiently large to make the season a profitable investment for the stockholders. In the matter of supporting a loser, Washington is the best baseball town on earth.

The most important new sport was the introduction of professional basketball. A strong league has been formed, the attendance has been fairly good, and promises to become much better. Amateur basketball has suffered little by the defection of the professionals, and the amateur league is having its full quota of spectators.

Roller skating was re-introduced last winter, and acquired a tremendous vogue. The rink in Convention Hall has had all it could do to accommodate the devotees of the long-buried pastime.

IMMENSE INTEREST IN FOOTBALL.

Football attracted unusual attention in 1906, because of the new rules, and the games between Georgetown, George Washington University, and the University of Virginia. There was a vast amount of genuine enthusiasm, and it reminded old-timers of the days when Georgetown and Virginia had their annual clash before the quarrel which kept them apart six years.

Golf progressed steadily, and there is talk of trying to get one of the national tournaments for this city. The principal feature of 1906, was the open tournament held by the Columbia Golf Club in the spring, which attracted the leading professionals and amateurs of the entire country

Rowing had a great year, culminating in the Middle States Regatta, held on the Potomac on Labor Day, in which many records were broken, and in which crews from many distant points participated. A distinct feature of the year on the river was the decision of the Analostan Boat Club to go regularly into rowing. Fred Plaisted was engaged as coach, and the Analostans have a bright future. Georgetown's crew finished last at Poughkeepsie, largely because the faculty enforced rules which made proper preparation impossible. The spirit displayed by the men in the beat was magnificent, and their efforts were praised almost as warmly as if they had woo.

NO TELLING WHERE BOWLING WILL STOP.

Bowling is becoming contagious, and there is no telling where it will stop. New leagues are being formed every week, and the alleys cannot acco all the rollers. Was ington did not do very well at the American Bowling Congress in Louisville, but was recognized in the election of officers and enforced its right to be regarded as a potent factor in national bowling affairs.

Followers of the running horses received a bad scare when it was decided that the old system of bookmaking at Benning was illegal. However, the wise head- of the turf soon evolved a scheme of betting even more unsatisfactory and annoying than the old, and it is thought that the present "walk-around" style will prove impervious to the attacks of the reformers.

Automobiling is developing in Washington as rapidly as elsewhere. The Auobile Clab moved into its new quarters on the Brightwood road, and the Washington Automobile Association took an active part in securing sensible speed legislation for the District. Barney Gldfield, Eddie Bald, et al., held a series of auto races at Benning in September, but it cannot be said they were a success, the finishes being too good to be true.

Trapshooting is appealing to the gunners in these days of closed seasons The Analostan Gun Club branched out and brought to the city a number of prominent experts for exhibitions and tournaments, and has ambitious plans on foot for next season

Amateur baseball furnished remarkably close finishes in the various leagues, and the number of fans who missed their supper to see the games, which always began at 5:30 p. m., was astonishing. The Agricultural team of the Departmental League, won the city championship, but only after a fierce fight and by a narrow margin.

THOUSANDS OF BOXING ENTHUSIASTS.

Boxing carried hundreds of enthusiasts to Baltimore to see Kid Sullivan and other notables perform, while one or two private scraps nearer Washingtended to keep the useful and manly art of self-defense alive. Retw. ten and tweive thousand people heard The Times' bulletins from the Gans-Nelson fight on Labor Day.

There was much activity in wrestling, resulting in matches between Joe Grant and Rob Roy Mackey, and Mackey and Alexander Swanson, and Mackey and Eddie Barr, Among the amateurs there were many tournaments, and the bouts attracted many ladies.

Georgetown moved into its new gymnasium in the past fall, appointed Prof. Maurice Joyce physical director, and announced that it would go in for basketball, amateur wrestling and other indoor games, George Washington University, although it has no gym., promptly met the Georgetown move by announc-

Field and track competitions were numerous. The South Atlantic cham pionships were held at Benning and another meet at Luna Park. The Georgetown indoor games were a great success in every way, as were the high school games.

ern. Central, and Technical-had to there was practically no way for the dopesters to pick the winner, as had was possible to get a fairly definite was possible to get a translation and day, and just after the most side of the comparative strength by the events had been run off, a thunder storm results of the games with the weaker elevens. Only after Technical defeated Army and Navy preps by 6 to 5, but under difficulties. However, notand Central lost to the same team by 6 to 0 could a line be gotten on the However, these games portended little in picking the stronger team, as was shown a month or so later, first, because of the different weather conditions under which each was played, and, second, because the personnel of each team was considered as the personnel of each team was considered as the personnel of each team was considered as the personnel of each team was considered. The second of a field for holding such outside the true worth of field and track sports to young men, and incidentally greatly evidenced the city's need of a field for holding such outsidered to the oldest basketball organization in the latended the Grand American as the oldest basketball organization in the latended the Grand American as the oldest basketball organization in the latended the Grand American as the oldest basketball organization in the latended the grand American as the oldest basketball organization in the oldest basketball or ably changed.

One thing alone was certain, that Big Indoor Meets.

WRESTLING.

Wrestling had a fairly good year in Washington in 1906 among the profesionals, and a decidedly good one among the amateurs.

Interest in the sport when properly conducted is undoubtedly growing, and its future depends entirely upon those who pull off the matches. Honest bouts will restore the sport to the position it held twenty years aro. while juggling and fixing will kill it beyond all hope of revival.

The principal professional matches were those in which Rob Roy Mackey figured, and he must be given credit for furnishing the public with a run for its money every time he appeared. He and Joe Grant fought out their old feud in the spring in a handleap match. Grant greed to throw Mackey twice in an our. He gained one fall in 56 minutes of the fastest grappling ever seen here, and nearly got another in the remaining our minutes, but a bridge saved Mack ey. It was a great bout and when they eet again there should be a record

What Mackey Did.

Mackey also wrestled Aleck Swanson ere in the spring. Swanson was then he recognized welterweight champion had a busy time winning from he Washingtonian. This fall the only atches of prominence have been thos which Mackey stayed an hour with Fred Barthl, and the recent engage-ment in which he was twice thrown by Eddle Barr. Joe Grant, the popular Washingtor middleweight, has been busy in other nes, and has done comparatively little wrestling this year, but he expects to resume in the next month or so. His appearance will be welcomed. Mackey as also planned an extensive campaign, oposing, among other things, to meet n this city Al. Ackerman, who recently are showing improvement every time they enter a bout.

Boom Among Amateurs.

Amateur grappling has grown remark-bly in Washington. Starting two years eph H. Hunter. has advanced until now it has become one of the most popular indoor sports. Every athletic organization in the city has its corps of amateur wrestlers, and some of them are very promising. Among the new recruits to the ranks are Georgetown, where Prof. Maurice Joyce is developing material which he considers of intercollegiate caliber; to promote the interests of the club and place it upon a sound basis both socially and financially, and the size of the membership and the handsome balance in the treasury indicate that their efforts have been successful.

During the year just passed more than 59,000 tagets were thrown from the two improved automatic traps. A fournation of the most popular indoor sports.

A QUATICS. ith neatness and dispatch.

class were close, and the amateur rules codeman. W. C. Barr, Joseph Hunter, were strictly observed. Frank Huseman's Y. M. C. A. men won the honors, with Carroll Institute second. The Carrolls are after revenge and expect to the tables at a tournament in their own gymnasium in the near future.

BASKETBALL.

The most notable feature of 1906 in Washington basketball was the whole sale desertion of players from the amateur to the professional ranks and the Professional League, comprising four teams, at the opening of the fall season. The players come from the Washington, Light Infantry, and Eastern Athletic be erected. which started the professional

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL.

FIELD AND TRACK.

The league at present is made up of the Ordways, Commissioners, Infantry, and Eastern A. C., and at the end of the half season, which is just over, field again went to Western High School. With Eastern and Business of the league because of the lack of material, the three remaining—West of material, the three remaining—West
HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL.

FIELD AND TRACK.

The league at present is made up of the Ordways, Commissioners, Infantry, and Eastern A. C., and at the end of the hist season, which is just over, finished in the order named after a neck and-neck race with the first two tied for first place. The games will begin of the history of the snort in gain in January.

Next to importance to the forming of the professional league was the announces—the shooters will be divided into classes according to their skill, and a special effort will be made in behalf of the beginners and those who cannot shoot in the 50 or 80 per cent classes.

The annual meeting for the election of officers will be made in behalf of the beginners and those who cannot shoot in the 50 or 80 per cent classes.

The annual meeting for the election of officers will be made in behalf of the beginners and those who cannot shoot in the 50 or 80 per cent classes.

The annual meeting for the election of officers will be made in behalf of the beginners and those who cannot shoot in the 50 or 80 per cent classes.

The annual meeting for the election of officers will be made in behalf of the beginners and those who cannot shoot in the 50 or 80 per cent classes.

The annual meeting for the election of officers will be made in behalf of the beginners and those who cannot shoot in the 50 or 80 per cent classes.

The annual meeting for the election of officers will be made in behalf of the beginners and those who cannot shoot in the 50 or 80 per cent classes.

The annual meeting for the election of officers will be made in behalf of the beginners and those who cannot shoot in the 50 or 80 per cent classes.

Besides the increase in the large num-few weeks before. Central High carried off the honors the sport merely to have had the championship games here. Perhaps the most noticeable effect was that Washington-withstanding this, it was a boom for Amateurs Hold Their Own.

of the Central eleven, and it was two weeks of more before he was cleared and the date for the postponed game set. Central proved superior to Technical by II to 4, the losers scoring a goat from field in the first half and Central overconfident team went up against Western alloss with Western alloss with the singular team went up against Western, which for several weeks had had the efficient services of Thomas Kirby, who had coached the same school into the championship in 1996. Central was beaten by 4 to 0 by a field goal in the first half, and was outpidyed in the second. The result of this context tied all three teams for the championship, but since Western had not lost the tilde and fifth of the conditions and the efficient team was presented to the middle was another team was presented to the middle was another tory, who find the first half, and was outpidyed in the second. The result of this context tied all three teams for the championship, but since Western had not lost the tilde and fifth of the context tied all three teams for the championship in the context tied all three teams for the championship in the context tied all three teams for the championship in the context tied all three teams for the championship in the context tied all three teams for the championship in the context tied all three teams for the championship in the context tied all three teams for the championship in the context tied all three teams for the championship in the context tied all three teams for the championship in the context tied the tild the championship in the context tied all three teams for the championship in the context tied to the tild and the tild three teams for the championship in the context tild the champions the tild the champions the tild the champions the tild three teams for the champions the fact that the form th

VETERAN SHOOTER

"UNCLE BILLY" WAGNER.

He's Been a Trap Expert for Fifty-five Years and Is Still a Wonder.

TRAP SHOOTING.

The Analostan Gun Club, of this city | Horrible Fall of G. W. U. is one of the largest and most popular on the welterweight title from Swan- clubs of its kind in the country. The clubs of its kind in the country. The on November 10 on Georgetown Field year of 1906 has been a prosperous one by 17 to θ , largely through the individ-Joe Turner stands out as about the and the membership has increased until Virginia backs, and because the team ssionals. Jack Spalding has made now more than 100 members are enresionals. Jack Spalding has made rapid advances in the ranks of legiti-rolled. The Ordicers of the club are as ingtonians on the possibilities of the mate lightweights, while Nic Ross, follows; President, C. S. Wilson; vice new football rules, which received their young Hoover, Bobble Baker and others president, Dr. William C. Barr; treasurer, John Coleman; secretary, Miles Taylor; trustees, W. H. Hunter, M. D. Hogan and W. R. Baker; captain Jos-

with about half-a-dozen aspirants, it has advanced until now it has become to promote the interests of the club and considers of intercollegiate caliber; George Washington, which has men myho have made reputations on the mat in other colleges; the National Guard, and Gallaudet, where T. S. Williams is teaching a large class of his fellow mutes how to throw their fellow-men than fifty prizes were thrown from the two improved automatic traps. A tournament was held on May 30, and the season was closed with a merchandise shoot, which was attended by more than thirty members. At this shoot more than fifty prizes were thrown from the two improved automatic traps. A tournament was held on May 30, and the season was closed with a merchandise shoot, which was attended by more than thirty members. Baltimore won all the intercity bouts from Washington but one, but the Baltimoreans will come here this winter to neet the pick of the Washington but one there is every reason to imateurs, and there is every reason to imateurs, and there is every reason to imateurs that the Capital will make them. The club hald a squests 250 of the Baltimore which were shot for in two events, this event was awarded to the District and though it was attended with marked success, the affair of last Labor Day far surpassed its predecessor in every respect. club, which were shot for in two events.

amateurs, and there is every reason to believe that the Capital will more than hold up its end. Half a dozen open tournaments are scheduled for this season. One has already been pulled off at the Y. M. C. A. and it was an unqualified success. The contests in each Bauskett led, closely followed by John Coleman W. C. Baur, Joseph Hutter handsome silver loving cup presented to the club by the DuPont Powder Company. This valuable prize was sought for by many of the leading marksmen during the year and was finally won by the secretary. Messrs. Barr and Bauskett were the runners-up. The members propose to make 1907 the Some News Marks. The members propose to make 1907 the Some News Marks. banner year in the history of the club. The new marks and winners-Interformation of the Greater Washington New shooting grounds, more accessible to the street cars, are to be secured, Boat Club, New York, 5:28; senior fours, and as soon as the deal is closed a Ottowa Rowing Club, 5:084; senior for many years to come. large and comfortable clubhouse will eights. Nassau Boat Club, 7:494; junior Keen Competition.

four gig, Arundel Boat Club, Baltimore It is also the intention to offer a large 5:53; junior four double, Malta Boat game in Washington, and from other the shooters will be divided into classes While the meets were held during the past year of financial, the three remaining—Western. Central, and Technical—had to fight it out alone.

During the early part of the season there was practically no way for the dopesters to pick the winner, as had been the case in former years, when it was possible to get a fairly definite was possible to get a fairly definite did a fresults of the games with the weaker results of the games with the weaker elevens. Only after Technical defeated ings, After the rain, the meets were held during the past year of the respective in the forming of the professional league was the announcement treently published in The Times that both Georgeowan and George Washmand the face of certain defeated in shooting experience is William Wagnagers of the club, both in years and the shooting contingent in shooting experience is William Wagnagers of the season than ever before.

The membership of the Analostans is composed of prominent business men in Washington, Cabinet officers, and was the both Georgeowan and George Washmand department employes. The oldest meet, in the spring, at Benning. "It cannot be said that this affair was the big success that had been hoped. For the weather had been threatening all day, and just after the first few events had been run off, a thunder storm put a temporary end to the proceedings. After the rain, the meets were held during the past year than ever before.

Next to importance to the forming of the Analostans is composed of prominent business men in Washington, Cabinet officers, and in what the professional league was the announcement recently published in The Times that both Georgeowan and George Washmand department employes. The oldest meet, in the spring at the toth Georgeowan and George Washmand department employes. Washington, the boys deserve great credition in Washington, Cabinet officers, and in what the first of the club, both in years and that clirac ther college has part and the sport and is more is popular indoor sport, and is more is popular indoor sport, and is more for a period of thirty-one years. His experiencing in the District.

Canoeing Has Big Advance.

The poto-experiencing in the District. live birds and when this sport was at macs, took part in two out of town its zenith he could always be found at regattas, one in Philadelphia, and the the big events both North and South. ber of independent teams about the city whose managers bob up every minute or He has a record of 120 live birds with- to win at either, he did creditable work.

Washington, has grown to a marked de- Handicap tournaments-the largest noeing was more popular than ever. ably changed.
One thing alone was certain, that Western had light, inexperienced material. Technical met the Red and chance to develop and, as was to have been expected, had little trouble defeating Western by a large score.

Western Jars the Critics.

The High School indoor meet of February 23, had a record breaking entry list. The most noteworthy event of the University of Virginia's two-mile relay team for the championship of the South, by George Washington, the latter having lost to the Charlottesville four in a one-mile row in Richmond, alism against Capt. Angus MacDonald, of the Control eleven, and it was tree.

Washington, has grown to a marked degree. At the finish of the season of 1905. Western the season of 1905 the Ordway Rifles, under the management of Sergeant Robbins, of the District National Guard, walked away with the top-notchers with scores of 23, 52, 44, and 24. At one of these shoots, which will always be memorable on active the name of the Ordways in the professional league. The Ordways won all the nineteen league games, besides four all of whom alism against Capt. Angus MacDonald, of the Control eleven, and it was tree.

Washington, has grown to a marked degree. At the finish of the season of 1905. We she the management of the season of 1905. The High School indoor meet of February 23, had a record breaking entry list. The most noteworthy event of the Lister Hability loosing the western Robbins, of the District National Guard, walked away with the top-notchers with scores of 23, 52, 44, and 24. At one of these shoots, which will always be memorable on active two men they are now playing under the management of the District National Guard, walked away with the top-notchers with scores of 230, 52, 44, and 24. At one of these shoots, which will always be memorable on active National Guard, walked away with the top-notchers with scores of 230, 524, and 24. At one of these great matches, he has been up with the top-notchers with scores of 230, 524, and 24. At one of the cainty live hundred cano which they took in Baltimore. The Y.
M. C. A. was second, losing but the two games, which were played with the champions. The Carolls, Columbia, and Epiphany Chapel, finished in the order named. The Corocan Cadets, which for a long time had captured first honors in this league, were independent last year, and did creditable work in Baltimore, New York, Connecticut, York, Pa. and elsewhere in the North, ming the majority of the games.
It was the first time that a Washington team had taken a trip of this kind, and it proved such a decided success that the Second Regiment five, led by Cap. C. E. Edwards, will m a few days start on another tour.

The Washington City League Season

New Football Code Is Well Received

By Big Crowds Georgetown and G. W. U. Games With Virginia Mark New Era on Local Gridiron.

No Changes Wanted.

the games between Virginia and George town, Virginia and George Washington University, and Georgetown and George ington team before Georgetown at T. M. Sherman, the Sadaquada piayer, Washington.

eges and the public at large. With ach claiming the championship of the eastern and northern South, it was an insatisfactory arrangement to have hem finish each season without meet Every sporting instinct demanded that they get together and play an annual game. For burying the hatchet they deserve the thanks of all intersted in amateur sport.

Because of the stupidity and brainless ndifference of the football management at Georgiown the early games of that team did not attract their proper at-tention this season, and the athletic fund lost hundred of dollars, which could have been made by the exercise of a little human intelligence in the matter of giving out information about the team.

Georgetown was defeated by Virgini better line, but Virginia had greater re-

George Washington, coached by Cro well, the famous Swarthmore kicker, on November 17, at American League Park, n Washington, held Virginia to a tie of 0 to 0. It was a hard, interesting game, but was scarcely a fair test for

States regatta on the Potomac cours

under the auspices of the Potomac Club of this city was the feature of the best year in aquatic sports that Washing

Washington clubs did exceptionally well, notwithstanding the fact that but one race was captured by a local crew.

Analostans finished a good second and pushing the Potomacs hard for first place. The only other events in which a ocal crew was placed was the intermediate eight, in which the Potomacs got second. The fact that five of the Potomac river records fell is alone am-

The Potomacs sent an eight to the Jamestown regatta, and were beaten out at the finish through a mistake, Not only did rowing prosper, but ca-

College football got a tremendous was a very creditable game for G. boost in Washington in 1906, because of W. U.

Georgetown Field on Thanksgiving Day. Georgetown and Virginia has long been thing else, G. W. U. seemed to have desired by the cooler heads of both col-Georgetown, and there was much betting that the trick would be turned. The result was a Georgetown victory by 16 to 6. The G. W. U, had neither nerve nor stamina, and certain men, notably Sutton, curled up as soon as the fray began. Also, Coach Joe Rellly had driven the new rules into his team since the Virginia game and these plays, ably directed by Captain Bocock, were largely responsible for G. W. U.'s humiliation.

numilation.

Among other important games Georgetown defeated North Carolina at Norfolk by 4 to 0, Bocock kicking a field goal, and George Washington University held Swarthmore down to 17 to 0 in Washington.

New Rules Great Success.

The new rules were an unqualified suc cess in Washington. First attracting attention as curiosities, they made an immediate hit with the public. In almost every game played in Washington the team whose coach was gifted with sufficient brains to take advantage of the possibilities of the new code was the winner. Only very minor changes, public or football players. Georgetown's schedule in 1906 was lighter than it has been for some years, while that of George Washington was more pretentions than it has ever been before. Both teams are arranging schedules for next season which are more pretentious than that of the past season. With the good work done by both in 1906 and the attractiveness of the new rules there is every reason to be-lieve that there will be more interest in football in Washington in 1907 than ever

PIGEON FLYING.

A large attendance marked the sev enteenth annual meeting of the Wash-ington District of the American Federacember 27. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: President, H. A. ensuing year were: President, H. A. Herfurth; first vice president, Alexander Bain; second vice president, John Holmead; secretary-treasurer, W. F. Dismer; race committee, W. F. Dismer, chairman, and Messrs. Herfurth and Dove. Neither socially nor for the and Dove. Neither socially nor for the the locals not doing more than they eran pigeon flyers who have success- R. Wier, Wilmi excellent array of flyers, but Messrs. Bain, Herfurth, Holmead, mediate doubles, mile, Staten Island and Fairbanks will continue to uphold the prestige of the Washington district narrow margins, and while no new records were created, the races in general

The climax of the season's work was the entertaining of the National Federation, which took place on December 11. Not since the formation of the national body in 1886 has there been so! cities represented at an annual further limiting of the number The further limiting of the number of birds eligible on a racing team will further improve the quality of the racers in 1907. The owners are now anxious for the opening of the racing season, and are eagerly waiting the coming of ateur sallors. Before last year Washington had paid but little attention to this branch of aquatic sports. Although there had been a number of motorboats on the Potomac, it had never ocmembership in the national organization until Mr. Welcker decided to attend the annual meeting in New York in April, where he was unanimously The fact that the Bachelors' Tennis

Motor and Sailing Regattas.

gard to regattas. Both the Corinthian has been the chief tennis center and Capitol Yacht clubs held their usual city during the past year. The future of summer races on the lower Potomac, at Widewater. The Corinthians were not it is able to find suitable quarters, slightly handicapped before the opening quarters that will be conveniently loon June 7 of their handsome new club- cated. house, which is located on Water street, between N and O southwest. June 7. greatly improved the past year. when the club changed to its new quar- mun, who won the championship of the ters, the officials immediately began to association and later was runner-up in thousand are to be repeated in 1904, as they give those who may remain away from the river front all their lives, never see a canoe, and then express the fool-ish opinion that canoeing is one way of finding what is on the other side of the River Styx, a chance to form a dif-ferent view on the subject. prepare for the summer outings and the championship of the District of Coidered one of the features of the sea- shown better form right along. The Y.

sidered one of the features of the season among boating circles.

In the Capital Club's sailing regatta on Decoration Day the Corinthians won the subject.

Corinthian Yachtsmen Honored.

The election in April of John P. Welcher, of the Corinthian Yacht Club, of this city, to the office of vice commodore of the American Motor Boat Association was perhaps the most important event that happened in the yachting world of interest to local ametrical son among boating circles.

In the Capital Club's sailing regatta on Decoration Day the Corinthians won the cup in class B with the yacht Neona, owned and handled by Guy Glassico. This was the most important event of the year locally, as there is a great deal of friendly rivalry between the clubs in these meetings.

Both clubs are already planning their campaigns for next year, when the officials hope to have the successes which have attended them during the past the best of the players there. portant event that happened in the yachting world of interest to local am-

GOLF.

Washingtonians in the past year were treated to some of the best golf since the adoption of the sport in the District. There were a half-dozen or more small tournaments on both the Columbia and Chevy Chase links, but five stand out s important.

These were the Columbia special open spring tournament in April, the annual open spring fall tournaments on the Columbia course, the fall tournament at Chevy Chase, and the play at the same club in November for the Siamese

The first of these brought together some of the best talent seen in this city, and some good golf developed before the feature, the four-ball four-some medal play, was won by Alex Ross, the Brae Burn professional, and W On the dope, on appearances and every- ment held here, and Donald Ball, Philadelphia, tied for second money, with L. A. Hamilton, Engiewood, and Bernard Nicholls, Hollywood.

Outsider Beat Columbian.

It was fate that an outsider should take first honors in the open spring tournament. T. M. Sherman, of the Sadaquada Club, defeating Samuel Dalzell, of Columbia, the most successful affair of its kind ever held in the city. The greens had never been in better condition, owing to just enough wet weather preceding the tourney. Notwithstanding the fact that a number of expert outsiders were entered in competit with the local enthusiasts, the latter carried off the majority of the prizes, Columbia taking six out of fourteen Chevy Chase five, and the Invaders

L. White, of Chevy Chase, took the conors in the first sixteen with T. Leslie, of Columbia, runner up; E. B. Eynon, and J. T. Hough, both of Columbia, finished in the order named in the third sixteen, and B. Woodruff, of Co-lumbia, and C. A. Crampton, of Chevy Chase, were the winner and runner up, respectively, in the fourth sixteenth. The first, second, and third consolations went to M. Thompson, Chevy Chase; R. D. Dalzell, Pitisburg, and W. F. Ham, Chevy Chase, in the order mentioned. T. M. Sherman had the lowest handicap gross score, while the lowest net score ! was made by G. T. S. Allwood,

L. L. Harlan Wins Again.

The fall tournament was much more of a local affair than the former. It practically resolved itself into a contest for honors between Chevy Chase and Columbia. The real feature was the bad weather conditions. For a week before it came off, there had been an incessant downpour, which put the grounds in bad shape, and old Pluvieus, not satisfied with this, worked overtime during the three days of play, Dr. L. L. tton of Homing Pigeon Fanciers, which was held at its headquarters on Deedged as Washington's foremost golfer, was again winner, beating A. S. Mat-good work of the birds can any pre-vious year in Washington pigeon flying compare with the one just coming to a close. Known and honored in every sec-tion of this country, Canada, and Cuba, wherever a homing pigeon club exists wherever a homing pigeon club exists, the reputation of the Washington fanciers has been steadily advancing. Sevilumbia. The winners and runners-up in enty per cent of its membership are vet- the remaining sixteens follow, in order:

petition to determine the holder of the Siamese minister's cup. W. R. Tuckerman finishing first in a field of thirty-

A matter of interest was the agitation by some Washingtonians of the benefits The competition in 1906 was keen in to be derived from establishing a public the highest degree. Diplomas were golf course here, but after a rather quite evenly distributed and won by feeble discussion by those interested the subject seems to have been dropped.

TENNIS.

The past year has seen many changes in the tennis world of Washington. In fact, there is only one fact that remains undisputed when you look back upon the close of the season a year ago. And that is Conrad B. Doyle still is the undisputed champion of the District of It is true that he was hard pushed in the final round of the tournament held here for the championship of the Middle Atlantic States last May by Richard Hooker. But Hooker is by rights a New England player. In the tournament for the championship of the District held curred to those interested to apply for this fall, Doyle had no difficulty whatever in retaining his title, although Geoghegan was in good form, But Doyle was unanimously while there have been but few no-liceable developments since the New fork meeting, those owning motor boats ave been at work, and plans are nearly completed for a large representation of Washington boats of this descripion at the Jamestown Exposition next ammer, in conjunction with the squadn of District sailing boats which will ake the trip. have moved away from Washington. Locally, the sport did not suffer in re- But in spite of this, the Bachelors' Club

The play at the Y. M. C. A. courts has entests, which have come to be con- lumbia, is a steady player and has the best of the players there.